CERTIFICATION OF RAMHARI SUBEDI

Ramhari Subedi, being first duly sworn on oath, states that he has personal knowledge of the information contained in this affidavit, and if called as witness, he could competently testify as follows:

1. I am a Recruiter, as that term is defined in the Complaint. I recruit workers in Nepal to work in the United States on J-1 and/or H-2B visas.

2. I first had contact with Louise Merchant ("Merchant"), who owned and was president of International H-2B/J-1 Work & Travel USA, Corporation ("International"), in January 2008. Until March 9, 2008, my communications with Merchant were exclusively by email and telephone. In my many communications with Merchant between the first week of January 2008 and March 9, 2008, Merchant represented to me that she and International would obtain J-1 and H-2B visas for my clients in Nepal in exchange for fees from my clients.

3. Merchant's representations were also conveyed to my clients by email, together with International's 2008 Program Information referenced in the Complaint.

4. In reliance on Merchant's representations, two of my clients (identified in the Complaint), submitted, collectively, $2,200 to me to wire to Merchant to obtain J-1 visas. On January 29, 2008, at the insistence of Merchant, I wired $2,200 to International's PayPal account.

5. On March 9, 2008, I met personally with Merchant in Nepal, at which time, Merchant repeated her representations that she would obtain J-1 and H-2B visas for my clients in Nepal in exchange for fees from my clients.

6. Subsequent to March 9, 2008, I had further email and telephonic communications with Merchant, during which she repeated her representations that she and International would obtain H-2B and J-1 visas for my clients in Nepal in exchange for fees.

7. In the first week of May 2008, by telephone, Merchant requested that I recruit as many Nepalese H-2B applicants as possible and that she would obtain H-2B visas for those recruits to start working in the United States on October 1, 2008. During the first week of May 2008, Merchant emailed me International's 2008 Program Information.

8. In reliance on Merchant's representations, I recruited 111 Nepalese H-2B applicants. The applicants received International's 2008 Program Information by email and, pursuant to International's requirements, returned their applications by email. Additionally, pursuant to International's requirements, each applicant's application fee had to be wired to International. Applicants wired $32,700 to International between May 27, 2008 and July 10, 2008. A list of the applicants I recruited that submitted fees to International is included herewith as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference. All 111 applicants were, in 2008, and are currently Nepalese citizens and residents.

9. In July 2008, Merchant advised me by email that the applicants I-797 certifications would be available between August 15, 2008 and August 30, 2008, but they were not available by that time. On September 18, 2008, Merchant advised me by email that the I-797 certifications were still not available. Merchant repeatedly assured me that the applications were being processed and the I-797 certifications were forthcoming.

10. On October 9, 2008, Merchant advised me by email that she was not able to get the I-797 certifications, because another company sold them. On October 10, 2008, the Development Director of that other company advised me by email that Merchant and/or International never paid for the I-797 certifications, which is why they did not receive them.

11. Each of the applicants I recruited received Merchant's and International's representations that International would obtain I-797 certifications and H-2B visas for them in exchange for fees. Each of the applicants I recruited submitted fees and applications to International by wire pursuant to International's requirements. None of the applicants I recruited obtained I-797 certifications or H-2B visas from International. Therefore, none of the applicants I recruited were able to obtain jobs in the United States for the October 1, 2008 period. None of the applicants I recruited has received a refund of fees wired to International.

12. Since October 9, 2008, I have diligently investigated the actions of Merchant and International and attempted to obtain refunds for me and my clients. I have spent extensive amounts of time gathering evidence related to this matter and corresponding with my clients and others around the world who have been victimized by Merchant's scheme. I have also assisted extensively in assisting my attorneys in this case in preparing pleadings and researching and
